

Features:
 When the target object is in the detecting range one time, the lamp switches on(off). When the target object is in the detecting range second time, the lamp will be switched off (on).